

vital casualty aid

Field Casualty Mat

The Field Casualty Mat provides emergency responders with a highly versatile casualty protection and rescue aid.

Used as a first response device until full resources arrive, the mat offers casualties protection from the external elements and assists in controlling body temperatures.

Compact and lightweight, the mats are ideal for use in emergency and disaster first response including mass casualty situations, locations where recovery can be delayed and environments where hypothermia is a risk.

CONTACT US

+64 9 836 8255 | sales@covertex.co.nz | www.covertex.co.nz

Design features:

Compatibility – can be used with immobilization devices, backboards and fits within standard baskets and stokes stretchers

Compact & lightweight – unroll to use

Relief – foam pad provides comfort and insulation from the ground

Adjustable – multi-fit adjustment for different sized patients

Robust construction – made from waterproof and fire rated materials

Non-rigid – easy to maneuver in tight spaces

Positive buoyancy – floats well and can be used in water and wet environments

Reusable – disassemble for cleaning and reuse

Specifications:

Dimensions: Laid flat (unrolled) 2.0m x 1.8m
Rolled: 0.63m x 0.2m diameter

Weight: 2.6kg
3.5kg with lifting handle set

PROPERTIES

CONSTRUCTION

The mat consists of a 12mm closed foam pad incorporated within a waterproof, fire-rated folding fabric outer.

Standard colours of red or yellow with retro-reflective strip for visibility and safety. Other colours available.

OPTIONAL FEATURES

- Lifting handle set to act as a non-spinal stretcher
- Side zipped entry ports allowing upper limb access for medical assistance

STANDARD FEATURES

- Size adjustable Velcro securing details
- A4 clear document pocket
- Day/night reflective side strips
- Single drag handle for moving casualty by one person

covertex